

The BCDPC Breeder information Service is provided as a courtesy to its members and potential buyers. The BCDPC or its Officers do not recommend, guarantee, endorse, nor rate breeders, their kennels, or their stock. We also do not examine individual dogs. Buyers beware in all instances.

The BCDPC accepts information from their members in good faith. Buyers should be certain to check all matters relating to registration, health claims, awards or certificates, Doberman quality (adult, puppy or otherwise), puppy agreements with the breeders or sellers before making any decision.

The BCDPC and its officers, assume no responsibility for the quality, health, or temperament of any dog, nor the warranty, guarantee, integrity, honesty or reliability, either expressed or implied, by any person whose name is forwarded to them. All such warranties, guarantees and promises are between buyer(s) and seller(s) as individuals. The BCDPC promotes and expects fairness in all buyer-seller relationships. We reserve the right to refuse to give out information of any Breeder that operates using practices which are in violation of our code of ethics or not in good standing with the BCDPC. Information is only accepted from BCDPC members who have been members for a minimum of 3 years and are in good standing.